Proud to be a Moose!

KIMBERLY KELLY, EDITOR

There is nothing more invigorating than attending the Moose International Convention.

If you have been to one before, I am sure you know what I mean.

But if you haven't, let me share a few things from my latest experience.

You can feel the excitement in the very first steps you take when you get to the venue. For me, it was just a few steps - well, okay. The reality of it is that it was a whole lot of steps and for those who track their steps I am sure they had no problem meeting their daily quotas. I got a scooter.

The sessions were informative, inspirational, and built-in anticipation for the next one to come. With each presentation, the excitement grew.

The entertainment was out of this world, and the speaker was inspirational.

The training sessions offered were informative and useful, and those who attended them went back to their Moose homes ready to use the information to make improvements.

The people. Oh, the people. So many Moose members converged into one location with the same common goal.

And that's where the magic happens.

From seeing old friends to meeting new ones, the love and fellowship for one another were evident every step of the way.

I made a lot of new friends in Orlando, including some of you, and that made it an even more memorable and valuable experience.

To each of you, thank you for inviting me into your Moose lives and sharing your experiences with me. You make me proud to be a Moose!

The Guide receives Journalism Awards

One of the highlights of the 134th Annual Moose International Convention was the Journalism Awards.

I am proud to say that, because of all of you, The Guide took home three awards during the MI Journalism Awards Ceremony.

Without your commitment to the Moose and your willingness to help in your community there would be no stories to write and no newsletter to put together.

You make me proud to be a moose. Thank you for letting me be a part of it all.

We all celebrate the accomplishments of our members! Congratulations!!

The chapter is still needing a Fraternal Activities and a Mooseheart/Moosehaven Chairmen.

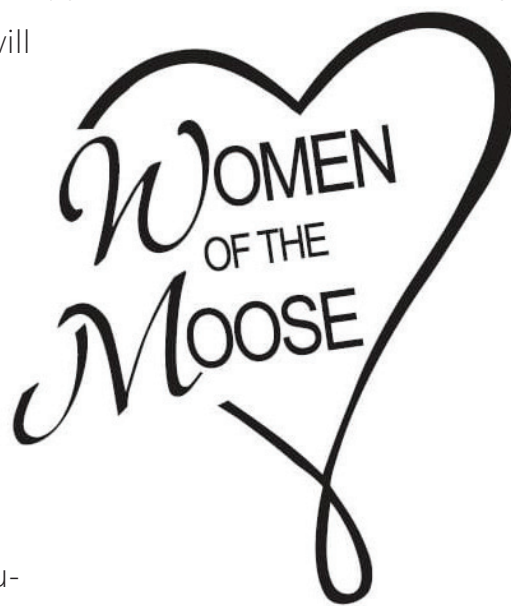

If you are interested in holding a chair and possibly obtaining a higher degree please let one of the chapter officers know. We would love to have you.

Chapter meetings are on the second Tuesday of each month at 7:30 p.m.

Watch your lodge and chapter Facebook pages... that's where we have been announcing unscheduled meal events.
